

For messages that come from the heart: the Connector greeting card set

For granny, your sick father or your best friend: the new Faber-Castell greeting card set is perfect for children from age six who want to send personal messages to their favourite people. The motifs on the ten greeting cards range from a simple “thank you” to cheerful scenes. The images and a total of 60 felt-tip pens are easily organised in the compact box. From sunny yellow to midnight black, the set features every colour creative youngsters could possibly need to conjure up imaginative and whimsical motifs. Whether it be a surprise for your own child or a birthday present for someone else’s: the greeting card set always makes the perfect gift.
